Vedette Directory.

Area 100, 382 square miles—Population 80,000.

The Capital, Great Salt Lake City, (Population 17,000,) situate on the great highway westward in the grand centre of the golden circle comprising Colorado, Montana, Idaho, Nevada, New Mexico and Arizona. The City is one of the most beautiful in the Union, and the largest between St. Louis and Sacramento. Its scenery of mountains is majestic and its view of islands and Lake is perfectly picturesque.

The City proper is a square of three miles each side, and contains 260 blocks of 10 acres each (each divided into 8 lots) and 4 public squares. Its level streets, running due east and west and north and south, are 128 feet wide, with shade trees along either sidewalk, and living streams of water flowing beneath sides of every street to irrigate the fruit trees and gardens.

The Territory is divided into twenty counties the towns of which range from 6,000 to 600 population.

DIRECT ROUTE TO THE

GOLD FIELDS OF MONTANA!

VIA EAGLE BRIDGE, situated near Eagle Rock Ferry, (known in Campbell's and other guide books, as Rickard's Ferry.) The Ferry is in good running order. Emigrants and freighters will find it to their advantage to cross at the bridge, thereby avoiding the danger of crossing a rapid and turbulent stream by means of boats. In connection with the Bridge and Ferry, we have a General Store, where every article required by travelers and stock can be obtained. We have also a black smith shop, where all kinds of work will be done at moderate prices.

Freighters, to insure a supply of grain at the Bridge or Ferry, should address a letter to the proprietors, via Great Salt Lake City, Utah, stating the probable time of arrival and the amount required.

ITEMS WORTH COMMITTING TO MEMORY.—A bit of ice dissolved in skim-milk and water, will restore old crape. Half a cranberry bound on a corn will soon kill it. An ink-stand was turned over upon a white table-cloth; a servant threw over it a mixture of salt and pepper plentifully, and all traces of it disappeared. Gilt picture frames and glasses are preserved from flies by painting them with a brush dipped into a mixture made by boiling three or four onions in a pint of water. Bedbugs are kept away by washing the crevices with strong salt water, put on with a brush. Soft soap should be kept in a dry place in the cellar, and not be used until three months old.

SHERIDAN.—A writer in Harper's Magazine gives an excellent personal description of Sheridan, as follows: "His body is stout but wiry, and set on short, heavy, but active legs. His broad shoulders, short, stiff hair, and the features of his face betray the Milesian descent, but no brogue can be traced in his voice. His eyes are gray, and being small, are sharp and piercing and full of fire. When maddened with excitement or passion these glare fearfully. His age is thirty-four, but long service in the field has bronzed him into the appearance of forty."

THE English papers gravely announce that the Prince of Wales has "got off" a pun. It is copied from the Journal de Geneve: "The Prince of Wales made his first official pun the other day. At the dinner he gave to Count Lagrang he wore a cravat with the colors of the winner of the Derby. This is an additional tie-belt to the Count." To make the thing clear the Times adds this valuable bit of information: "In English, tie signifies both bond of union and cravat."

The Daily Union Vedette.

MONDAY MORNING, SEPT. 18, 1865

They are all Dumb Dogs—They Cannot Bark.

The motto we have selected for the heading of this article, is the language of Inspiration; and we have selected it because we consider it appropriate, in a figurative sense, to the condition of our inspirational friends below.

In earlier times, when the system they represented was unencumbered with polygamy and other vices now incorporated with it, the emissaries of Mormonism were as indefatigable in their defense of its claims, as they are now insinuative in the propogation of its heresies. Public discussions and private debates between them and the opponents of their system were as frequent then, as polygamic declamations are now. The demoralizing influences of their social system were less extended, and proofs of the existence of such influences, in connection with their system, less complete. Hence, they were bolder in their attacks upon other systems; more invincible in the defence of their own. They courted investigation, and used the most generally circulated local papers as the vehicles of their challenges to public debate, with as much eagerness then, as they shun and are enraged at investigation now.

How great, how marked, the change! Logic teaches that every effect proceeds from a cause, and we are decidedly of the opinion that it requires the aid of no prestigious art to divine the cause of this change. When men adhere to a cause from an inward conviction of it's truth; when the legality of that cause is, in their judgment, maintainable by both law and gospel,—they are naturally fearless and bold in elucidating its tenets and unflinching in their defense. But when their conduct is punishable by law; when it is utterly at variance with the letter as well as the spirit of the gospel; when it's gross sensuality is such as to make the existence of it's devoters a blot on the fair face of nature, and bring upon them the condemning and united voice of the virtuous and upright of the civilized, and even of some of the more enlightened of the semi-barbaric, nations; they become timid in their declarations of adherence, and the arguments they use (if they use any at all,) in its advocacy or defense are puerile and unconvincing. The enlightened portion of Mormondom feel this. The pursuit of the policy inaugurated by their lecherous, leaders, has worth, and they preserve quietude. Herein lies the secret of their silence.

The men who, but a few years ago, would have boldly ventured on an argument with any one who dared to attack their religious faith, now stand abashed and confounded. They dare not cross the yawning gulf that separate the polygamic from the monogamic world, for there visages of disappointed wives and heart-broken mothers up-turn their gaze, and tribes of children, clad in the sombre habiliments of squalid wretchedness, knowing nothing of a father's love, point them to the horrid consequences of the lawless step their leaders on the other side are inciting them to take. To recant, they dare not; for a love of the principles that first drew them to the church, still holds them there. They dare not follow their leaders further lest they should be wrong—they dare not forsake them, lest they should be right. They are spell-bound, and in the depths of bondage. Such, to-day, is the condition of hundreds in Utah, and in such condition must they remain till the spell be broken. We hope "'twill not be long.'

But there are hundreds who have taken the fatal step, and profess to be enamored of its charms. Yet even they see their principles attacked, but they go not to the "rescue." Challenges have been published in the columns of this paper to meet them, "from Brigham Young down," in public discussion, and debate the relative merits and demerits of polygamy; yet, though they intrench themselves behind a pretended revelation, and refer their practices of this vice engendering dogma to a command of God, they shun a controversy which their opponents agree to decide by an appeal to the word of God. They know the weakness of their position and dare not risk an encounter.

The VEDETTE has reached its fourth volume, and, during the whole of its career, it has fearlessly exposed the many wrongs of Utah's leaders; and though, in its bold attacks, it has preferred many and grave charges against them, they have never dared to enter the arena and brave a contest on the battle-ground of honorable and open warfare, with the arguments of reason and experience. Circumstances have been narrated, with the names of parties implicated in them, and the dates and localities of their occurrence, and still, neither the parties themselves nor their friends have attempted a refutation.

We must not, however, ignore the articles published in the Telegraph a few days ago, while we were out of paper. They were too much of a relish to be either overlooked or forgotten.

We have dived so deeply into the secret workings and hidden developments of Utah Mormonism, that an occasional glance at the surface workings helps to [illegible] and who is better than [illegible] to treat us to a superficial view of the matter than our versatile and accommodating friend of the Telegraph. After a studied silence of an indefinite period, its editor became, all at once, very bruce; and learning that the VEDETTE was out of paper, and that none would be supplied from the city, began to instruct us on "The reason why" of our opposition, and boldly threw down the gauntlet imagining we could not take it up. But, unlucky man, how he was doomed to disappointment!

Scarcely had he got on his high-heel boots, ere our sentinel was again mounted and on duty. We took up the gauntlet. We have attacked him on every side, and we find him very vulnerable; but he stoically bears the brunt of our weapon, seemingly resolved to patiently endure chastisement until our stock of paper shall be exhausted, or some contingency occur, when he purposes to again appear on the Telegraph stage, as "The Gauntleted Knight," in the farce of "Little love but many wives."

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

[SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION VEDETTE.]

New York, Sept. 12.

Latest advices through official sources, from Hayti, state that though the Revolutionists have held out longer than was expected, they must submit. Their rebellion has been prolonged at Cape Haytien, because President Geffrard, by investing the place, hoped to weary out the rebel garrison without inflicting upon the citizens the horrors of a bombardment, but he has now resolved to take more decided measures and bring matters to a close Haytien. President Geffrard is now at this point and will return to Hayti as soon as matters are completed.

A Scotch agent, now here, has secured a large tract of land in Virginia, where a colony of Scotch emigrants will settle in November or December.

The World's special says, it is thought that the military force will soon be withdrawn from Virginia and the power to maintain order be placed in the hands of the militia, the same as in the case of Mississippi.

The Herald's Vera Cruz correspondent says the Liberals are making active preparations for a winter campaign in the mountains of Torres. They are busily engaged preparing for one grand coup de main, when the roads hence are in good order. The government will not be prepared for such a blow when it comes, say towards the end of October, when the empire of usurpation will be crushed, and Bazine, with all his command in Mexico, could not find men who would dare to offer to guard the proudest Marshal of France to the Gulf. You may expect to hear by any steamer that leaves this port, of the flight or capture of Napoleon's protege.

Irish papers continue to direct attention to the Fenians. There appears to be no doubt that military drilling is going on in many parts of the country, increasing and gathering strength and numbers. On the night of the 27th of August there was a great gathering at Black rock, near Dundalk, to start a muster to cope with the police, but four of the leaders were picked out and subsequently arrested.

St. 12.

The plans proposed to the Indians in council at Fort Smith, further stipulate that slavery must be abolished, and that freedmen shall have the right of being incorporated into the tribes on an equal footing with the other members thereof.

Bangor, Me. 12

Fires are raging in the woods in every part of this country, particularly in Carmel, Hermon, Oldtown, Veasy, Bradly, Milford, Oreno, and Holden. Much valuable property is being destroyed, and tanneries, &c., are in danger. The B and M. O. Railroad cars find it difficult to get through the flames.

Washington, 13.

In the clause in the Virginia constitution prohibiting all who have aided, participated in, or sympathized with the rebellion from voting or holding office, the first disability is already removed by legislative action. The proclamation of Governor Pierpont now submits to the people the question, shall the next General Assembly be clothed with power to alter or amend the third article of the Constitution, namely, as to holding office. There seems to be no doubt but that this disability will also be removed.

New York, 13.

The Commercial's special says, Gen Meade's account of the condition of Carolina and Virginia is very satisfactory, the people and prominent citizens are everywhere disposed to accept, frankly, the issue of the war, and to resume their former relations with the National Government. Arrangements were made by him, under the authority of the President, for the gradual withdrawal of all the Federal troops, and the resumption of the civil law. The people acquiesce in submitting all disputes between the whites and blacks to the Provost courts.

Halifax, 14.

The Asia, from Liverpool on the 2d Queenstown 3d, has arrived. The manufacture of the new Atlantic cable has commenced. The Great Eastern has been engaged for five years for cable purposes.

New York, Sept 14

The World's special says, by the close of the year, the many will only have as many vessels in commission as at the commencement of the war. Only three ironclads will be claimed, one for Charleston, one for New Orleans, and one for San Francisco; the rest are to be laid up in the Delaware Bay, below Philadelphia.

The Adams Express fast freight train from Washington, and a train from Kingston, collided this morning at two o'clock at Princeton, on the Camden and Amboy railroad; there was only one person killed.

The Post's Washington special says the officers of the Richmond banks have preferred a claim for the specie captured from Davis, and just brought to Washington.

Among a large number of Southerners who arrived at Washington to-day, was Herschel V. Johnson.

Worcester, Mass., Sept. 14.

The Republican State Convention assembled here to-day, and nominated Col. A. H. Bullock for Governor and the Hon. Wm. Claflin for Lieut. Governor.

Augusta, Me., Sept. 14.

The Kennebec Journal this morning contains the official returns from 264 towns, comprising more than three-fourths of the voters of the State. Curtis has 18,640 majority, against 14,667 in 1864. The total vote of the State fell short of 80,000.

New York, Sept. 14.

The Herald's Washington special says, the restrictions on applications for pardon from Alabama are removed; that State is now on a footing with the other States.

C. E. Townley has arrived with $100,000 in gold captured on the train with Jeff. Davis while passing through Georgia.

Jenkins and Ketchum were arraigned in the court of sessions to-day; Jenkins was called upon to plead to two indictments for embezzlement and grand larceny; this council, Ex Judge Steward said a demurrer would be introduced. Ketchum plead not guilty to the indictment for altering the goop checks. The cases were postponed till next term.

The People's Line Steamboat Company to-day laid the keel for the largest steamboat in the world, being fifteen feet longer and five feet wider than the St. John," with a hundred more state rooms.

Halifax Sept. 14th.

The Asia from Liverpool 2d, Queenstown 3d brings dates two days later. The "City of Dublin" left Liverpool for New York at the same time with the Asia. The Atlantic Telegraph Company have unanimously accepted the offer of the Telegraph Construction Company to manufacture and lay down a new cable and complete the present one, so as to have two perfect cables between Ireland and New Foundland next summer. The manufacture of the new cable has been commenced. The work is being done with the utmost care.

Capt James Anderson has received an offer from the Telegraph Construction Company, for the use of the Great Eastern for five years, in laying cables and has accepted of it.

Cyrus Field sails for New York in the Great Britain. It is stated, in consequence of the spread of Fenianism, the number of regiments in the south of Ireland will be increased.

The board of trade Returns for July, show a falling off in British exports as compared with last year.

The fêtes at Portsmouth in honor of the French fleet had progressed in the most splendid manner and were concluded on the 1st inst. The reception accorded to the French officers by the English people, was exceedingly enthusiastic. At a grand banquet given by the Duke of Somerset in behalf of England, and by M. Chasseloupe, on behalf of France, an earnest desire was expressed that the two nations may ever live in peace, and on terms of the most cordial friendship and good will. This exchange of naval hospitalities between France and England is pronounced a memorable epoch, not only in the history of these two great powers, but even in that of the civilized world, and is universally regarded with great satisfaction throughout England and France.

Count Walewski had tendered his resignation as Senator, which was accepted.

The Patrie says that the French Imperial government and all the precedents [illegible] would not refuse its protocompact at Gastron. What has predominated in the arrangement sanctioned at Salisbury, has been a subject of the strongest interest and the annexation of Luxemburg to Prussia, raises another constitutional question.

The Empress Eugenie was at Fontainbleau, with ladies who were injured at Neufchatel.

Portugal—The new ministry is not yet formed. It is officially announced that Prince Avandonez did not visit Lisbon to represent Victor Emanuel at the baptism of the infant Prince. The Cortes has granted leave to the King to travel abroad, and he will soon visit Italy. Don Fernando is acting as regent in his absence. Such an event being unprecedented, has excited public surprise.

Latest—A new Cabinet has been formed under the Presidency of Viscount Decostroli.

The Brazilian war between Paraguay and the Argentine republic shows no signs of termination. The rains have retarded military operations, but hostilities were about to commence on an important scale, and large armies were being raised by volunteers and conscriptions.

Cairo, 14.

Orleans papers of the 8th contain an account of the wreck of the steamer Scotia, on the night of the 6th, five miles west of Trinidad lighthouse, while en route from Orleans to Galveston. The ship and the greater part of the cargo were a total loss, but no lives were lost. A heavy gale had swept over the Gulf of Mexico, and no vessels had arrived at New Orleans for three days.

Fort Smith, Sept. 13th.

A treaty of general amity and peace was submitted to the Indian council today, and until to-morrow was given them to examine it. Governor Colbert, of Arkansas, has arrived, and reports large numbers from different tribes en route here. The Seminole have presented papers explaining their relation with the rebellion.

New York, Sept. 14th.

The Times' City of Mexico correspondent says, there are at present in the city about 40 rebel officers of different grades.

All associates with American citizens here who have maintained a loyal attitude, with the utmost cordiality. No bitter vituperation of the Yankees is heard. Many schemes of colonization are proposed by them of which the most memorable is Duke Gwyn's Sonora project. Among those now pressed upon the attention of the Government, the most feasible and important is that the government should donate a large tract of land in the vicinity of Cordova, for founding a larger colony. If the donation be obtained, it is proposed to issue a circular for general circulation, particularly throughout the South, under the signature of Kirby Smith, Price and Magruder. It is confidently asserted that this will induce large numbers, to emigrate from the States.

Notwithstanding the persistent refusal of the government of the U. S. to recognize the Imperial government of Maximilian, it is the only government defacto existing in the civilized portions of Mexico. This government has very carefully maintained a position of impartial neutrality throughout the late war, and now it declines to accept these propositions for various reasons, not the least of which are that it might appear to our government an abandonment of this neutral position by extending too much protection to disloyal citizens.

Washington, Sept. 14.

A telegram received here from Columbia, S. C. says that the State Convention assembled yesterday with 100 members present. It is regarded as the ablest body ever convened in that State. Resolutions of discontent were offered which received only five votes; they were laid on the table. The Governor's message strongly sustains the President's reconstruction policy.

In the progress of preparing the census, it is ascertained that the total increase per cent, in the manufacture of cotton goods in 1860, compared with 1858, exhibits: New England, 81.24; Middle States, 79.52; Western States, 9.00; Southern States, 43.70.

Colorado Territory is a State, by the late action of its voters.

Gov. Evans, of Colorado, is [illegible] and a Mr. Cummings of Pennsylvania is appointed in his stead

SUSAN DENIN has got down to playing "Topsy," in "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and is said to make a splendid failure.

ON DIT.—An Eastern paper says that General Hooker is going to St. Louis to marry a pretty and wealthy widow.

AMONG the passengers by Saturday morning's stage, [illegible] Stone, Esq., late editor of the Denver Gazette

SINCE the close of the war the applications for pensions have increased very rapidly. Over 100,000 applications for pensions, from widows, have been filed in the pension office at Washington.

ROBERT DALE OWEN is writing a "Life of Abraham Lincoln." His publishers give him two years to finish the work. He is paid $3,000 down, and $15,000 when it is finished.

GEN. MEAGHER will leave for Montana by next Thursday's coach, if not sooner. He's anxious to get to see his "friends and fellow citizens," at that great "centre of the universe," Virginia City.

SUPERINTENDENT REYNOLDS, of the O. S. Line, returned here yesterday, from the east. He has been hard at work, for weeks past, putting in successful operation the daily line between here and Denver.

THANKS to Frank P. Fox, the renowned artist of fruit and flower notoriety, for a lot of luscious edibles and lovely lookables, such as flowers and fruits of the first flavor. Go for Fox, when you want anything that's nice and not excellable.

THE ladies of the Deseret Dramatic Association, awakened to the sense of their appreciation, are going to have a "Benefit" on Wenesday evening, as we well wish. The pieces will be "A Husband for an Hour," and "The Belle of Fanburg," first rate plays.

THE CHINA MAILS.—The Postmaster-General has accepted the tenders of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company for a mail steamship line between San Francisco and China, via Honolulu, Sandwich Islands, authorized by the act of Congress, approved February 12th, 1864.

S. G. ROSENBAUM asks the public to call and examine his new and splendid stock of dry goods, clothing, etc. He has just opened at the "New Store" on Main street, and good bargains may be secured if people will only call early, as his goods are going fast and at low prices.

REVENUE DECISION.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue informs Assessors and Collectors that all persons traveling about the country as he agents of manufacturers and dealers, seeking orders for goods in original or unbroken packages, are regarded as commercial brokers within the meaning of the law, and as such must procure licenses.

IT was an error the stating that Mrs. Hayne would start for the Golden Gate this week, as we all shall have the pleasure of her presence here uninterruptedly this season. Glad of it. Glad to share the sweetness of her smile on the street and stage. Delightful and distinguished, as she is, her individualism incites all dullest natures bright and coarsest cultivated.

RUSH TO IDAHO AND MONTANA.—The St. Louis correspondent of the San Francisco Alta, writing under date of August 5th, says that the rush to Idaho and Montana continues unabated. A large part of the emigration goes up the Missouri river, which has been unusually high during the Summer. The land travel by this route is much less than by the plains across. So speaks Judge Lynch, of the Gold Hill, Nev., News. The last line or two is tolerably clear, considering the sage-brush.

THE theatrical entertainment at the Salt Lake Theatre, last Saturday night, was a splendid thing. The audience was as large as ever has been before in this great institution. The acting of America's own daughter, the genius-gifted Julia Dean, was all that her most appreciative admirers could have enjoyed. 'Twas great, 'twas glorious and 'twas gifted. Her "Lady Macbeth" was a well-received rendition, remarkable alike for its ability and originality. Mr. Waldron, as the "Tyrant of Scotland" "tyranized" with great success over the Salt Lake audience, and seemed to win 'em all with admiration. We wish that we had time and space to speak of several of the stock company as we would like. Suffice it to say that they, en masse, made the occasion a success, and showed that Salt Lake can come up to States' importation. Of the afterpiece we will not particularize, as would do the subject justice, sufficing it so say that, like the idolaters of old, we are an "Alexander" worshipper, and admire his acting always.

T. Stewart clears $1,000 per day. Sub laths exe[illegible] Cornelius Vanderbilt pleads guilty to [illegible] that sum, while William B. Astor rat's his income at $4,330 per diem. Sleeping or waking, the latter gentleman finds a [illegible] minute of the 24 hours.

NEW YORK COMMERCE.—One day last month there were in New York harbor forty-nine ocean steamers, one hundred and eight ships, one hundred and twenty-nine barks, one hundred and twenty brigs, and seventy schooners, making a total of three hundred and sixty vessels, of which two hundred and seven are foreign.

A DIRTY little sheet called the "San Francisco Dramatic Chronicle," speaks of Secretary McCulloch's circular to the City of San Francisco, as a "begging letter," to bring some change to the treasury of Uncle Sam. That organ of a [illegible] as men can generally make a thing. The ingrate outfit ought to be ashamed of himself.

THE FENIANS.—The Catholic Bishop of Philadelphia has had authority from Rome to announce that the assertion made in certain newspapers to the effect that the following decision had been given by the Holy See, to wit: "Fenianos non esse inquietandos," "The Fenians are not to be disturbed," is utterly false, and he promulgates the fact that it should be understood that anything has emanated from the Pope in favor of the fraternity.

Distinguished Arrival.

Major-Gen. Thomas Francis Meagher was welcomed to town, Saturday morning, by the citizens, through Acting Governor Reed and others, who spared no pains to make his stay pleasant in this Great City. At night, the worthy patriot, citizen and soldier was honored with a splendid serenade, by the courtesy of the Camp Douglas Band, Major O'Neil in command.

The speech of the General on the occasion, was appropriate and eloquent, of course. After his remarks a call was made for Ex-Captain Charles H. Hempstead, who entertained the audience in front of the Salt Lake House for a while. The whole affair was worthy of a page herein, but we have not the room.

From San Francisco.

Treasury Department,
Office of Comptroller of Cur'cy
Washington, June 23d, 1865.

WHEREAS by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that "The First National Bank of Nevada" in the City of Austin, in the County of Lander, and State of Nevada, has been duly organized under and according to the requirements of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide a National Currency, secured by a pledge of U. S. bonds and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June 3d, 1864, and has complied with all the provisions of said Act required to be complied with before commencing the business of Banking under said Act.

Now therefore I, Freeman Clarke, Comptroller of the Currency do hereby certify that "The First National Bank of Nevada," in the City of Austin, in the county of Lander and State of Nevada is authorized to commence the business of Banking under the Act aforesaid.

In testimony whereof, witness my hand and seal of office this twenty-third day of June 1865.

"Jim writes he collects her assets
From every debtor she ever meets,
And thought how I could "come it,"
If the mines would only pay.

I thought I'd visit Conesty,
And friends for to see,
Whom I could pay a visit
If the mines would only pay.

I thought of a little dearie,
Not quite so far away,
Whom I could go and marry,
If the mines would only pay.

I thought then of the printer,
How he works both night and day;
How I'd pay up for my paper,
If the mines would only pay.

Also the I handy donated,
For all felt so secure,
They freely voted and shouted,
And thought they had it sure."

Vast fortunes in embryo
Loomed up before her eyes;
Making all pockets itchy so,
To grasp the glittering prize!

But now the vision's vanished—
Its brightness all has fled,
And I am disappointed,
And still have "nary red."

The bubble now has bursted—
Its dazzling colors flown—
The miners, slightly worsted,
Had better all go home.

I'll go in the field with Jim,
And strive to pay my debts,
And thank the clever fellow
That told me to—"you bet."

DOUGLAS JERROLD hearing of a man having three of his teeth knocked out by a blow from an ax, exclaimed: "No one to blame, of course! Quite an axydental operation!"

QUITE a time has been made in the newspapers over a Buffalo judicial decision that men are not compelled, in railroad cars, to rise and give up their seats to ladies! Why didn't the Buffalo Judge add that gentlemen were not required by law to surrender their hats as well as their seats?

United States 7.30 LOAN Third Series.

$230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, I have disposed the General subscription Agency for the last $200 of United States securities offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three tenths per cent interest, known as the 7.30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15 1865 and are payable three years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5.20 Six per Cent. Gold bearing Bonds.

The Bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all the Government Bonds, from County, and Municipal taxation which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to

One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents per day on a $100 note.
Ten cents " " " $500 "
Twenty cents " " " $1,000 "
One Dollar " " " $5,000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions at par. The notes of this third series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven Thirties already sold except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10th in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency on gratuity 15th at the time when the subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the seven thirties will commence on the first of June and will be made promptly and continously after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate.

The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with a six per cent in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency. This is

The only Loan in the MARKET.

Now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the Great popular Loan of the People.

Less than $230,000,000 of the Loan authorized by Congress are now on the market. This amount, at the rate at which it being absorbed will all be subscribed for within sixty days when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of country may be offered facilities for taking the Loan the National Banks, State Banks and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents in whom they have confidence and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which the receive orders.
